

Lena Barsky

741 Eastern Parkway, Apt. 2, Brooklyn, NY 11213 ☐ (703) 300-1689 ☐ lbarsk@gmail.com ☐ <https://lenabarsky.com/>

EDUCATION

Brown University

A.B. Magna Cum Laude, Classics: Latin (with Honors), GPA 3.97

September 2010-May 2014

Providence, Rhode Island

- Phi Beta Kappa, Elected February 2013 as a junior and Inducted March 2013
- Senior Honors Thesis: “Mater, Cyrene Mater: Rethinking Narrative in Virgil’s Georgics 4.325-558.” Director: Jeri Debrohun; Reader: Joseph Pucci
- Vassar College intensive Italian language program at the University of Siena, Siena, Italy, Summer 2011

Honors & Awards

- 2014 Rhodes Scholarship Finalist, one of thirteen in District 9 (Indiana-Kentucky-Virginia)
- Brown University Classics Department’s Lucius Lyon Latin Prize, May 2014
- Brown Wind Symphony Featured Clarinetist, playing “Concerto for Two Clarinets, Op. 91” by Franz Krommer, May 2014
- Brown University Band’s Irving Harris 1928 Award for Greatest Contribution to the Welfare of the Band, November 2013

PUBLICATIONS

- Steven G. Calabresi and Lena Barsky. “An Originalist Defense of Phylar v. Doe.” 2017 BYU L. Rev. 227 (2017). <https://digitalcommons.law.byu.edu/lawreview/vol2017/iss2/4/>.
- Lena Barsky. “On the Hidden Meanings of the Laudes Italiae of Virgil’s Georgics Book 2.” Brown Classical Journal 26 (Apr. 2014): 83-92.
- Lena Barsky. “Alcuin in the Bible.” Brown Classical Journal 25 (Apr. 2013): 143-152.

POLITICAL ADVOCACY & NONPROFIT WORK

Legal Momentum

Director of Program Management

September 2018-present

New York, New York

- Lead the rebuilding of Legal Momentum’s website: work with web designer to create new website structure; rewrite extant text on every page of the website and/or generate new text for new pages to reflect Legal Momentum’s current work.
- Work collaboratively with Development to write and submit grant applications for opportunities at the federal, foundation, private giving, and community-based organization levels.
- Coordinate all communications for Legal Momentum: write and send out biweekly e-mail newsletters to over 7,000 subscribers; write and circulate press releases as needed; write all content for Legal Momentum’s social media channels.

Legal Momentum’s National Judicial Education Program (NJEP)

Program Manager (July 2017-September 2018), Program Associate (May 2015-July 2017)

May 2015-September 2018

New York, New York

- Managed NJEP’s two Department of Justice Office on Violence Against Women grants: provide technical assistance to other OVW grantees, write biannual progress reports, monitor grant finances, and communicate with grant managers.
- Researched, drafted, edited NJEP’s Teen Dating Violence \(TDV\) Information and Resources Sheets for judges, the courts, and multidisciplinary audiences. Topics included power dynamics present in TDV and unique needs of LGBTQ+ survivors.

National Committee for an Effective Congress (NCEC)

Researcher and Analyst—Election and Census Data, Redistricting

June 2009-March 2015

Washington, D.C.

- Analyzed the 2010 congressional and legislative redistricting cycles in Florida, Texas, and Illinois to determine the effects of partisan gerrymandering and voter-ID laws; suggested solutions following Supreme Court case Shelby County v. Holder (2013).
- Prepared summaries of exit polling and voter turnout data in the North Carolina and Virginia 2014 senatorial elections to evaluate performance of Democratic candidates, track demographic trends, and predict Democratic success in the 2016 cycle.

Brown University Sexual Assault Policy Task Force

Founder (www.tinyurl.com/lenabarskySAPTF)

July 2013-June 2014

Providence, Rhode Island

- Developed strategy for working with Brown administration to effect changes in sexual assault policies.
- Drafted Task Force recommendations to update the Student Code of Conduct and to create educational programs.

Brown Political Review, Brown University Political Theory Project

Column Manager and Featured Web Columnist

September 2012-May 2014

Providence, Rhode Island

- Pitched/wrote over 40 columns (such as “Holy Schnikes, Reproductive Health!”) on BPROnline’s “The Courts” blog. As the Supreme Court reporter with constitutional law expertise, strove to make oft-complex Supreme Court cases accessible to all.
- Edited articles by other “The Courts” columnists and managed “The Courts” content (oversaw pitches from other writers).

National Immigrant Women's Advocacy Project (NIWAP)

Research and Operations Intern

June 2013-August 2013

Washington, D.C.

- Drafted educational materials distributed to victim advocates and law enforcement officers nationwide explaining provisions of the 2013 Violence Against Women Act that directly affected immigrants and American Indians/Alaskan Natives.

TEACHING & ACADEMIC RESEARCH*Political Theory Project, Brown University Department of Political Science

Research Assistant to Professor Steven G. Calabresi

June 2012-December 2013

Providence, Rhode Island

- Researched and co-wrote a 102-page law review article analyzing from a constitutional historical perspective the 1982 immigration law case Plyler v. Doe, which granted noncitizen children the right to a public school education.
- Guest-taught the lecture on impeachment for Professor Calabresi's "Constitutional Law: Governmental Powers" undergraduate course at Brown University in October 2012; received favorable reviews from undergraduate students.

Brown University Department of Classics

Teaching Assistant for "The American Presidency &amp; the Western Tradition" and "The Idea of Self"

Fall Semesters 2012 and 2013

Providence, Rhode Island

Brown University Department of ClassicsMember of the Editorial Board for the *Brown Classical JournalSeptember 2012-May 2014

Providence, Rhode Island

Ascanius: The Youth Classics Institute

Faculty, "Activities" Class, LatinSummer 2009

January 2009-August 2009

Williamsburg, Virginia

- Create and plan an original, two-week English language curriculum for third- through fifth-grade students focused on Roman Republican culture. Lessons included units on: gladiator matches, life in Pompeii and the eruption of Vesuvius, Roman mythology and religious practices, and a child-friendly translation/production of Plautus' Aulularia.

LEADERSHIP*Metropolitan Music Community's Grand Street Community Band (GSCB)

Personnel Manager, Grand Street Community Band

January 2017-present

Brooklyn, New York

- Write "The Weekender," the Metropolitan Music Community's weekly newsletter, which provides information about rehearsals, upcoming performances, and community events, for all MMC three ensembles.
- Oversee all communications between GSCB's Artistic Director and the band's 110 members, via emails and in-person announcements at weekly rehearsals.

Meiklejohn Advising Program, Brown University Dean of the College

Meiklejohn Peer Advisor

September 2011-May 2014

Providence, Rhode Island

- Advised a total of 13 first-year students over three years on their transition to college life and academic plans.

Brown-RISD Hillel

Member, Student Search Committee for a New University and Hillel Rabbi

February 2013-May 2013

Providence, Rhode Island

Brown University Band (Clarinet)

Head Scriptwriter (2010-2014), President (2012), Corresponding Secretary (2011)

September 2010-May 2014

Providence, Rhode Island

SKILLS AND INTERESTS

- Languages: Latin (reading proficiency), Italian (conversational & reading proficiency).
- Computer: CiviCRM, Drupal, Adobe Photoshop, Microsoft Office, WestLaw, Lexis Nexis, Facebook, Twitter, Instagram.
- Music: Bb clarinet in the Brown Wind Symphony and Brown Band from 2010-2014; private Bb clarinet lessons with Karen Heninger through the Brown Applied Music Program from 2010-2014. Bb clarinet in Brooklyn's Grand Street Community Band (one of three Metropolitan Music Community ensembles) from 2015-present.
- Hobbies: swing dance, yoga, running, reading Jane Austen, Neil Gaiman, Hilary Mantel, Gabriel Garcia Marquez, Madeline Miller, Richard Siken.